

About the Artist Ryan Frederick

Ryan Frederick is a native of Adair County, Iowa. He studied the organ from his mid-teens, first with Mrs. Janna Nelson of rural Menlo, Iowa, and occasionally with Dr. Carl Staplin of Drake University. He then received five years of university-level instruction in organ and harpsichord performance from Dr. Lynn Zeigler while attending Iowa State University, where he performed his graduating senior organ recital in December of 2008. He eventually achieved a bachelor's degree in business management, along with minors in both finance and music (organ performance). He has also taken occasional instruction from and shared much correspondence with Dr. David Pickering of Grace-land University in Lamoni, Iowa, as well as Mr. Kenneth Davis of Central Presbyterian Church in Des Moines, Iowa, both of whom he is acquainted with through involvement in the American Guild of Organists. He is also a member of the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, and a past member of the American Bach Society and the American Handel Society.

Johannus Opus 17 Organ

Johannus Opus 17 Organ

In the Summer of 2009 the Johannus organ company offered a selection of their instruments at half price due to the slowing economy. The Trinity church council formed a committee to see if there was interest in purchasing a new organ. Nearly $13,000 was pledged by the congregation in four weeks and the congregation voter's assembly authorized the purchase. The organ was purchased and installed in June, 2009.

The Johannus organ is an Opus 17 and features:

- 29 Romantic voices
- 29 Symphonic voices
- 29 Baroque voices
- 12 intonations total
- 145 voices on board
- Stereo 3D Acoustics
- C-C# wind chest layout
- Physiological expression pedal

Organ Blessing

Beloved in the Lord, the gracious God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has made this a day of special rejoicing. With this new organ we will be encouraged to "sing to the LORD and bless His name, to tell of His salvation from day to day."

It will also adorn the Word of Christ which dwells in us richly in all wisdom so that, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, we may sing with grace in our hearts to the Lord. As He has taught us in His holy Word that everything is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer, it is fitting that we bless and sanctify this instrument for use in God's holy house.
